What a wonderful reputation Memorial has built in seventeen years! It has become rich in tradition. It was beyond all my dreams to become a small part of this tradition. The wonderful friendships and the great experiences will be with me as my most treasured memories. It was a thrill to become Miss Memorial XVII, but also a challenge. Along with the happiness and joy came the responsibility. I accept this responsibility now and will keep it as my goal forever.

Sincerely,
Lisa Hughes

CHARGERS OF THE MONTH

SEPTEMBER

1. When a member of the class of '80 thinks of football the name Mark Crites comes to mind. He was a two year letterman and enjoyed weightlifting.
2. Lisa Hughes successfully juggled her many activities including captain of both the varsity cheerleaders and varsity gymnasts, co-president of NHS, and a member of various clubs.

OCTOBER

3. Brad Helton served Memorial as a member of Interact. In addition to his partime job, Brad enjoys soccer, camping, and skiing.
4. As a spirited Charger, Sally Cross actively participated in varsity cross country and track. She was also a member of FCA, Gamma Sigma, and NHS.
5. Pat Jordan is well liked by the students of Memorial because of his great personalilty. He showed his leadership as president of FCA and captain of the football team.

NOVEMBER

6. As an officer of Pep Club Leslie Roberts was kept very busy. She was also a member of Gamma Sigma, NHS, German Club and FCA.
7. Tom Forbes was very active this year as a STUCO officer. In his spare time he enjoys basketball and listening to music.

Seniors Elect Favorites

CHARGERS OF THE MONTH

DECEMBER

1. An outstanding student, Neal Frenkel was a STUCO officer, a member of Board of Control, and in NHS. He also participated in many community activities.
2. Everyone's friend, Julie Hunt was always up to something. Fun, dependable Julie was in many clubs and served as STUCO officer and was manager of Hot Dog on a Stick.

JANUARY

3. Becky Ridgeway was known for her spirit and friendliness. Yearbook, Senior Board, and president of Gamma Sigma were just a few of her many activities.
4. Kevin Glanzer served Memorial in many ways; not only was Kevin a top basketball player, but he was also involved in Interact, Red Cross, and FCA.

FEBRUARY

5. Mark Fielding, known for his ever famous black truck, spent his spare time hunting, and 4-wheeling. Fun-loving Mark also had a part-time job.
6. Denise Elliot was a glowing example of the Charger spirit. She was in Wind Ensemble, Gamma Sigma, Latin Club, FCA, and was an NHS officer.

CHARGERS OF THE MONTH

MARCH

Joost Smits, an exchange student from Belgium, was one of our most loved students. He was active in school clubs and was invited to practice with the Tulsa Roughnecks.

Tammy Biddick was one of our friendliest and prettiest Chargers. She was in the school musical her junior and senior years and also played varsity golf.

APRIL

The unique name, Sjieuke, is Dutch for Susan. Sjieuke Robinson enjoyed photography, foreign travels, punk rock, and cruising in her X1/9.

Brian Stephens was one of the all-around great people at Memorial. He divided his time between music and athletics. He was busy with Jazz Band, Track, Cross Country, and NHS.

MAY

If you wanted to laugh, Mike Merrill was always there to help out. He was games-master of Bridge Club and belonged to Interact, Key Club, and NHS.

Gail Goldman had a personality that brightened the darkest day. She participated in Gamma Sigma, NHS, Senior Board and Key Club.

Chargers Excel in Scholarship

Not Pictured: Nancy Brown, Vince Bryan, Charles Greenough, Bret Masterson, Bobby Vogel.

In the spring of their junior year, students have the opportunity to take the PSAT-NMSQT, a test that measures scholastic aptitude. The following fall, students with exceptionally high scores on this test are named as semi-finalists and commended students. Semi-finalists continue in competition and those that become finalists are eligible for National Merit scholarships.

Once again, our school had more semi-finalists than any other school in Oklahoma. With the addition of the Mason students, Memorial's class of '80 had more semi-finalists than any previous class.

Not Pictured: Mark Filer, Teri Loerke.

Dictatorship, and Leadership

Class of '80 Cries "Seniors Rule!"

IRLS' AND BOYS' STATE Top Row: Leslie Roberts, Neal Frenkel, Lisa Hughes.

The elite section would be incomplete without mentioning the elite class of the school: SENIORS. During the year, the class of '80 consistently reminded the sophomores and juniors that seniors rule.

Girls' and Boys' State is an opportunity for selected students to learn about Oklahoma's government and to meet many different people. The week-long program includes speeches by prominent leaders in Oklahoma. In addition, participants campaign for offices and elect their own government.

Awards Assembly Honor

The annual awards assembly was held May 9, 1980 to recognize the many achievements of Memorial's students. After the presentation of colors, Dr. Darland spoke to the students about their futures. Then, students from the art, athletic, and academic departments presented to Memorial the many trophies they had earned in competitions. Placed together on the front table, their many trophies were an impressive sight. Scholarship winners were then recognized; more than one hundred seniors received scholarships. The assembly ended with the announcement of the five star award winners.

1. Dr. Darland gives the opening speech.
2. Tom Theodores presents a basketball trophy to the school.
3. Dr. Darland congratulates the Five-Star Award winners.
4. Melinda McMannas tells of the Freedom Foundation yearbook.
5. Chris Carnino describes DECA's achievements.

Students for Their Achievements

Five Star Awards ★★★★★

The process of selecting the five star award winners is a long one. After the teachers have submitted their nominations, a committee narrows the list of names until there are only ten. These ten students are those that have best demonstrated the qualities of scholarship, service, health, leadership, and character.

Seniors, Class of '80!

Success, it was our goal, and we did reach it. Throughout the year the Senior class of 1980 dominated in all activities. During pep rallies the Seniors always showed who ruled. Though the year was full of fun and homework, we all have grown, we have matured into the young men and women of the future. As we look back on our days gone by, we will treasure our memories of Memorial High.

1. Tom Adams shows off his beautiful locks.
2. Randy Hefner decides it is naptime in English.
3. Robert Little portrays "Mork from Ork" on dress-up day.
4. David Hicks and Rhett Brooks enjoy Senior life.
5. Seniors liked gathering together at the Pep Club picnic.

Seniors have always been known for their unusual stunts and ways of "persuading" sophomores. The class of 1980 is, of course, no exception.

In the beginning, as sophomores, we were all scared of being tricked by seniors and pushed around by juniors and their newfound power. We didn't know how to talk or act and we really didn't get a chance to be ourselves.

Stuck in the middle, as juniors, we were bored and still being ruled over.

Much to our relief, senior year finally rolled around. We could totally be ourselves and not worry about anything or anybody. We could express our views, opinions and thoughts any way we pleased . . .

This year, contrary to junior and sophomore opinion, seniors ruled, not drooled! We dominated in practically every school event.

We won the first spirit stick of the year and continued our enthusiasm throughout the Stuco canned food drive, the NHS pumpkin carving contest, the Key Club pie throwing contest, and all the activities during spirit week, especially the beard growing contest!

We will always know, "We're the best there ain't no maybe we're the class of 1980!"

1. Seniors showed their authority by having a winning homecoming float.
2. Earlyn Thies has no doubt who rules . . . SENIORS!

Senior Classes Rule!

REMEMBER

Apartment hunting in single survival.

MacKenna's gross films on V.D. in special physiology.

Dr. Hanes endless lectures.

Having to stay in C.O.E. two hours.

The U.N. arguments in contemporary affairs.

Having to be at school at 7:00 to hear Buddy Falis talk for business law.

Cooking breakfast in the apron you made in single survival.

Trying to get Coach MacKenna to take you on a field trip to Vinita.

Getting lost downtown while trying to find the courthouse for business law.

All the films in anthropology.

Christmas came up on a lot of us this year earlier than we expected. But, after much scrambling around, we made it — finishing our shopping on December 24. Some of the unusual gifts you could have given or maybe received were: street roller skates or a sleeping bag robe. Could it be, dear old Aunt Gertrud gave you something really useful like a train set or a doll that blinked? Some people say the Christmas spirit is gone — and the Christmas is totally commercialized, the old giving spirit isn't there anymore. But, it must still be if people still think about it. After all, they still put up Christmas trees and kiss under mistletoe. Some people still go to Christmas Eve church service and have big dinners on Christmas day. Is the old Christmas spirit really gone??

1. Patrick Calhoun "innocently" tries to get Leslie Roberts under the mistletoe.
2. In the loving spirit of Christmas, Rob Riley warms our hearts with a Christmas carol.

Make the News?

In the past months the headlines have contained information about the Iranian crisis. The controversy began when the Shah came into the U.S. and Iran took fifty American hostages. Then the invasion of Afghanistan by Russia brought about the conflicting matter of the U.S. Olympic team boycotting the games in Moscow.

Remember the disappointing withdrawal of gold medal hopefuls Tai Babilonia and Randy Gardner because of his torn muscle, and the extreme increase of the price of gas and gold. The question now is should women be drafted, and who will call the shots for the next four years.

REMEMBER

The week of January 21 through January 25. It was Unity Week, and Chargers showed their support for the hostages in Iran. During the week the student body wore white ribbons to represent unity. Later in the week students signed a petition in a plea to the Iranian Embassy in the United States to let our people go.

1. Paul Johnson shows his spirit by displaying a unity ribbon.

SENIORS MARK

The 1970's were a decade of uncertainty and change. Now that it's come to a closing it's interesting to look back at the people, events, and fads that "Marked the Decade".

1970 — American forces were still bombing North Vietnam, while Nixon promised peace would come soon. 1971 — Archie Bunker was brought to life by Carol L'Connor as "All in the Family" became a big hit. 1972 — The Israeli wrestling team was held hostage by eight Palestinian terroists at the Munich Olympics. 1973 — Secretariat became the first horse in 25 years to sweep the triple crown. 1974 — During a Watergate investigation, a recording proved Pres. Nixon's direct involvement in the cover-up, and Nixon, in disgrace, resigned. 1975 — New York City barely escaped bankruptcy with $450 million worth of notes. 1976 — The nation pulled together to celebrate America's 200th birthday. 1977 — Pope John Paul II, first non-Italian Pope, drew adoring millions during his visit to America. 1980 — Memorial's greatest class graduated and began shaping the next decade.

Juniors Enjoy Pep Assemblies

Remember . . .

When John Cooper got the pie in his face?
When the Seniors beat the Juniors in the Tug-of-War?
Finally not having anybody scream BABY, BABY, BABY during the victory cheer?!?

Remember . . .

The Junior Board existed for the support of the Memorial class of 1981. Activities for the year have included bagel, and candy stix, and T-shirt sales.

Members of the Junior Class also enjoyed decorating the homecoming float, receiving honors for their school spirit. The past year was a success for class, but the future year holds many new experiences for the class of 1981!

1. Juniors show their enthusiasm at a football game.
2. The football team is cheered on by the great class of '81.
3. Juniors enjoy an "exciting" lunch in the school cafeteria.
4. Coach Eddy urges Juniors on.

Juniors Make Decisions for Senior Year

Remember

The competition in sports, grades, clothing, and the senior class elections?

The slogans which were so "corny" but might catch someone's attention?

Making the campaign buttons and painting the hall banners and posters?

The good feeling you got when you found out who your class leaders would be for the up-coming year?

1. Sherri Wakefield enjoys her art class.
2. Rick Reppe as his famous "Mr. Rogers."
3. Karen McMahon tries not to cut her thumb in clothing.
4. Mr. Johnson grades junior papers.

THE TRAINERS

MEMORIAL SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Administering to Our Needs

1.

3.

4.

6.

As administrator of Memorial, Dr. James Darland has proved himself over and over again. He showed great pride in the school by attending school functions which weren't in his eight to three schedule. He gave the students a chance to voice their opinions and suggestions. Dr. Darland did his best to see that the year ran smoothly for everyone.

1. Dr. Darland chats with some parents at the N.H.S. initiation.
2. Dr. Darland and Mr. Kertzman discuss the day's activities.
3. Dr. Darland remembers when he was a sophomore.
4. Dr. Darland judges the distance from here to there.
5. A principal's job is never done.
6. A snowball fight makes a nice change from the everyday routine for Dr. Darland and Kari Root.

Dedication to All

7.

The assistant principals, Mr. Jerrel Beller and Mr. Dale Schuler, helped Dr. Darland with the administrative work at Memorial. Talmage Thompson, who was also a vice-principal, left during the year for a position at the Educational Service Center. All of the vice-principals tried to make Memorial the best that it possibly could be.

1. A sign of the times.
2. Mr. Schuler looks forward to another day.
3. Mr. Schuler adds up a student's grades.
4. Schedules take up a big part of the day for Mr. Beller.
5. Mr. Beller, incognito.
6. Mr. Schuler takes a break from his busy schedule.
7. Mr. Beller gives a little free advice.
8. Could Mr. Schuler be calling out for donuts?

Showing Us the Way

Although many changes took place this year in the counselors' offices, they still had the time to help each student with his needs. Dr. Outhier left after the first quarter to become a part of the Broken Arrow High School. The Deans, Del Crafts and Robert Roberts became the new counselors. Through much hard work and devotion, each counselor showed us the way to our pot of gold. By working with each student individually they aided him in achieving his goals. From schedule cards to college enrollment and careers, our counselors were always there with smiling faces.

1. Warren Booze — Sophomore Counselor L-Z.
2. Mary Ellen Bridges — Junior Counselor A-K.
3. Wanda Cox — Senior Counselor A-K.
4. Del Crafts — Junior Boy's Counselor L-Z; Girl's Dean.
5. Robert Roberts - Junior Girl's Counselor L-Z; Boy's Dean.
6. Tom Outhier — Junior Counselor L-Z.
7. Margie Creager — Sophomore Counselor A-K.
8. Michael Victory — Senior Counselor L-Z.

The entire staff worked hard and long to make our school just right. They each had jobs which were sometimes tedious and time consuming but they always got them done with smiles. Many of their jobs were from seven o'clock to four o'clock or later. They typed letters, absentee bulletins, schedule cards and put together the morning bulletin. Others ran the bookstore, the library, the cafeteria and kept our school clean. Although we may not have realized it, these people played an important part in our school. Without their devotion our school would have never run smoothly.

1. Donna Hemphill — Office Manager.
2. Rita Moyer — Cafeteria Manager.
3. Joanne Neely — Clerk.
4. Amelia Wilson — Registrar.
5. Ruby Lee — Nurse.
6. Norma Lincoln — Clerk.
7. Rosalea Heflin — Bookstore.

The Fundamentals

English teachers taught their students the fundamentals of the subject. Students who were enrolled in English did everything from reading Shakespeare to doing grammar exercises. Senior English consisted of many plan pages, full thesis, and essays. Sophomore and junior English classes read many novels and prepared for the years ahead. Many students will strike gold later in their lives because of the knowledge they gained from these classes.

5. Does Carl Means always froth at the mouth when he reads.
6. Steve Dix and Mark Colburn try to prove that they are the perfect students.
7. Kent Hathaway gets a little help from his teacher.

Around the World

All of the foreign language classes gave their students a part of their country's culture. Latin students studied of the first Olympians' quest for the gold medal and proved that their language was not dead by learning how to speak it properly. German class gave students the chance to study the language of the greatly cultured Germany. French students gained the eloquence of the language through many hours of perfecting their accent. Spanish took its students South of the Border to 'Ole Mexico. These classes allowed students to broaden their horizons and to travel to countries without leaving the school.

7. German students, Susan Patterson and Leslie Larson, decorate their sacks for Valentine's Day.

Speech classes provided an outlet for Memorial students' creativity. Some really hammed it up, while others took their work seriously. All in all, they learned quite a lot about drama from Mrs. Cora McDonald, Memorial's speech teacher. The students really enjoyed the classes this year, and those who were juniors or sophomores looked forward to next year. They planned to make next year even better.

1. Mike Merrill and Kent Hatheway "act" like themselves . . . crazy!
2. Ho, Hum! Another day in drama.
3. Impromptu speeches are a common practice to the speech students.
4. Speech students enjoy reading classic examples of the comedy and tragedy.

What's in the News

The Sentinel Staff worked hard this year to produce seven consecutive issues, plus a senior issue containing last wills and testaments. Budding young journalists sniffed out newsworthy items to report on. When there were no events the staff turned to creative writing. Sentinel also drew ad posters and sponsored 70's day.

You Get What You See

Now and Then

Because two years of history are required for graduation, many students enrolled in Social Studies classes. The U.S. History classes studied the Gold Rush while Economics and Contempory Affairs classes discussed the fluctuating gold prices. The students talked about the way it was then and the way it is now. This was a way of learning of our country's history in the past as well as in the present.

1. Chris Beckmeier strikes a pose for the class.

Through the many science courses offered at Memorial students were able to extend their knowledge in these classes. In biology students dealt with life in the physical environment. Earth science gave an introduction to the nature and structure of the earth while physiology classes considered the structure and function of the human body. Chemistry students emphasized development of lab procedures. Aeronautics, a different kind of science, provided students with knowledge of the impact of aerospace age. Perhaps one of our students will be a future Nobel Prize winner.

Concert Chorus is elite of Memorial's choruses. The students tried out for this honor last year and went on from there. They performed for many different things. They sang at Southroads Mall, at the Williams Center and in the Winter Concert here at Memorial. They were honored by being asked to sing at several business luncheons. Many of the chorus members were enrolled in Mixed or Girls' Chorus last year. The experience helped them in preparing for being a member of Concert Chorus.

1. Kelly Mullen discusses a song with Mr. Call, Memorial's chorus teacher.
2. Janet Whalen accompanies Concert Chorus on the piano.
3. The Concert Chorus stretches their vocal chords second hour.

Making Beautiful Music

Jazz Band caught our attention with their great talent for pop music. They played at Byrd, Nimitz and Thoreau. At the Webster jazz contest they received a superior rating. A trip to state contest was planned in hopes of high rankings. We always looked forward to hearing these students play.

Orchestra became more distinguished this year. The group became larger making their music more dynamic. Early morning rehearsals were held to improve even more. The year included a climb in members, practices and challenging music. Orchestra attended contest in Oklahoma City with great success.

Wind Ensemble met each day in class to get a fresh start. Through lots of hard work, these students held a concert in the Memorial auditorium with the other bands. They also attended a concert with other bands in April, hoping to show off their talent. These students continued to improve their music throughout the year. They looked forward to the coming year with additions to the band.

Symphonic Band was a class of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. They attended three concerts during their year. These students also make up a large part of the Big Blue Machine. They worked hard all year to gain their full potential.

Business classes provided a golden opportunity for students to learn skills which would aid them in their future careers. These classes taught the students how to type, keep records, and even how to do their own taxes. Whether the students planned to go into a business field or not, they found that the courses they took were anything but dull. Students and teachers alike learned to keep their eyes and ears open because anything might have happened. Everyone learned from each other and looked forward to entering the world of business.

Distributive Education gave students who were interested in sales, marketing, and management careers a chance to learn these skills. Through guest speakers, display arrangements, and on the job training, students were able to direct their interests to specific areas. With the help of Ann Burcham and Pam Wallace, each student found an active part for himself in this program.

Cooperative Office Education gave students the chance to learn basic office skills. In this program half a day was spent at school and half was spent working in an office. Through this opportunity and the help of Marjorie Hughes, each student was able to develop his own interests through experience.

1. The class works diligently to finish their work.

The Taps Yearbook staff spent many hours preparing a new and exciting book for the 1979-1980 book. Classes section alphabetized students' pictures, counted pictures, and created their spreads. Other sections, including academics, student life, sports, organizations, and elite, organized group pictures, wrote copy, and cropped photos. Without the patience and advice of Mrs. Lentz our sponsor, Allison, and Dianne, we would have never known what we were doing. Through class cooperation, we all tried hard to meet our deadlines. Memorial is known for their powerful football team, and the 1979 season did not alter their reputation. The Chargers began the season securing the all-city trophy. Varsity's gold-strike really shone through in their victory over Edison, 31-zip. A combination of talent, strength, and hard-work really paid off.

The J.V. gained strength throughout their season, and on reaching their final games, they discovered the feeling of triumph.

Being the babies of the school didn't stop the sophomores. Working together as a team, they displayed some impressive skill.

GYMNASTICS

Competition was the name of the game and throughout Tulsa the Memorial gymnastic team was known as the "Top Competition". Memorial was the team that all the other teams were striving to beat. Memorial won first place at every invitational meet during the year, and so remained the best competition in Tulsa. Two members of the talented team had outstanding individual performances in All-City and won medals. Sophomore Sinead Sands took second place in All-City, and senior returning letterman, Shelly Dalton, took sixth place. The entire team worked together as an almost unbeatable unit and won the runner-up trophy. The team's effort and talent combined with the skillful coaching of Miss Wattenbarger made the Memorial gymnastic team what it was, which was, number one.

Memorial's varsity wrestlers had a tough year. The team was hurt by many injuries in the beginning of the season. Some of the Charger's best players had to be cut out. The wrestlers made up for it though and pushed themselves even harder. Working out, sweating, and dieting always kept the Chargers on their toes. They proved their long hard work on the mats and finished the season as if their prize were gold. Robert Carpenter, the leading team member, had an exceptionally good season. He won almost all the matches he wrestled in. Robert also went for the gold when he qualified to be in the state tournament for wrestling. So despite the dilemma at the first of the season, the wrestlers overcame their weaknesses and went for the gold.

The Memorial Junior Varsity wrestlers had a good season. Many of the wrestlers were new to Memorial's team. Under Coach Clevengers assistance the wrestlers pulled together and tried for the gold in their wrestling matches. Many of the players will return next year and many will go on to the Varsity team. Realizing that the sport is made up of what each individual gives the wrestlers did their best to work together in forming a team.

With three returning starters and a bench deep with talent, the Chargers were the pre-season pick to win the perenially strong Oklahoma Six Conference. Coach West and his troops knew that they had their work cut out for them against such conference foes as McClain, Muskogee, and Broken Arrow, along with a pre-conference schedule including Edison, Hale, Jenks, and the prestigous Tournament of Champions, but they welcomed the challenge.

The Big Blue got off to a strong start by toppling Edison and Hale, along with Broken Arrow in the first round of the All-City. The Charger's first loss of the year came at the hands of Edison in the All-City Quarterfinals. Crippled by injuries to the key starters, the team went to its bench for help, and the bench came through as Memorial defeated Owasso and Bixby for the 5th place.

After victories against Central and McClain, the Chargers fell into a slump of sorts as they lost 2 out of 3. But the boys rebounded well by defeating Rogers and Muskogee to up their record to 9-3.

With the backing of the infamous Sixth Man, a section of loyal and boisterous Memorial basketball fanatics, the Chargers defeated Byng, McClain, and Wewoka to capture the coveted Tournament of Champions. The Big Blue then coasted through their conference schedule with a 9-1 record. The Chargers beat Muskogee and won hard fought victories over Broken Arrow and Rogers. The conference championship wrapped up, the Chargers prepared for the State Playoffs. They ended the season with a 19-4 record and a second-place ranking among all state teams.

The Sophomore Basketball team didn't start with much luck this year. They began with a losing season and then their coach Wayne Nelson became ill. He was in the hospital for three weeks and was unable to coach for a full two months from December to February, during this time Coach Flippo filled in as coach. In the middle of the year the sophomore team began practicing with the varsity. The might varsity's game improved the sophomores offense and defense immensely. As incentive for Coach Nelson to get well, the team made up their mind to win the coming up Webster tournament. The basketball team defeated East Central, Bixby and Edison to win first place and receive a trophy which they promptly awarded to Coach Wayne Nelson.

This year's Girl's Basketball team was in a rebuilding year. Last year's team graduated five starters, but even so we had a strong team this year. Their biggest wins were the Consolation Championship at the Central Tournament and upsetting 10th ranked McClain 41-38. The games that they lost were usually within five points and went down to the final minutes. The team showed strength during the end of the season by narrowly losing to McClain 60-59 in overtime and almost winning in the regionals to 5th ranked Enid. Coach Eichling is to get an assistant, and next year's team is expected to be even better than this year.

SWIMMING

BOYS AND GIRLS SWIM TO TAKE THE GOLD IN ALL-CITY! This year's swimming team was the best Memorial has ever had! Both the girls and the boys took the Oklahoma Six Conference each receiving a trophy and then swam the competition right out of the water to an All-City victory winning two more trophies for Memorial. At the Oklahoma Six Conference Stephanie Stegman set a new 200 free record, and Bonnie Moser broke her own diving record, the boys team broke records in nine out of eleven events with Trey Kampf breaking the 200 free, and 100 fly records, Steve Lake beating the old 200 IM and 500 free records, Kevin Lilly breaking the 50 free record, Kevin Kertzman beating the old 100 free record, Mark Cooper breaking the old 100 breast record and for a winning combination Lake, Lilly, Kertzman, and Krampf swimming together to beat the past 400 free relay record. At All-City the swimmers set still more records with Tami Lilly, Cathi Earl, Stephanie Stegman and Betty Weeks all pulling to set a new record for the girls 200 yard medley. Steve Lake broke the old record for 500 yard free and Kevin Kertzman set a new record in the boys 50 yard free. Bonnie Moser set an all-time record for All-City girls diving. The excellent girls swim team had only one loss the whole year excluding relays and the unbelievable boys team was totally undefeated excluding relays!!! Who could hope for a better season?

The 1980 edition of the Varsity baseball team capped off a brilliant year with a state championship, the school's first. With a potent attack featuring steady pitching and fielding along with awesome hitting, the Chargers won five championships in the Broken Arrow, Memorial, Metro, Regional, and State tournaments. After a slow start, the team settled down into its conference schedule where they went 9-1 to earn the conference title. The Chargers broke many records on their drive to the state crown. They hit 33 home runs, led by David Hicks' 10 round-trippers; both city records. Their 29 wins were a school record for the most wins in a season. They also managed to break nearly all the school records before them. Our Memorial Chargers baseball team went for the gold and reached the top.

The Memorial Junior Varsity baseball team had a rough year. They managed to win five of the ten games they played. Many of their games were rained out and due to bad weather were never rescheduled. Although the team was set back by the misfortune, they did their best in the games they were able to play. Many friendships were made when the team came together. The team spent long hours practicing, working, and playing. They put everything they had into the games they played. The Memorial Junior Varsity Baseball team strived for gold and succeeded when they won lasting friendships and team spirit.

With the addition of the Mason runners, Memorial's boys' track team proved to be an excellent one. Coach Blevins worked hard to show that our team would represent one of rank and quality. One of our assets was the unbeaten relay quartet consisting of Bill DuPont, Dwayne Profit, Brian Stevens, and Steve Stiles. Many of the top runners will be graduating, but there are plenty of superb tracksters to replace them. Their devoted practice paid off as the team usually placed 6th or above in the majority of their races.

THE TENNIS TEAM NETS THE GOLD! Both the girls and the boys Varsity team were among Memorial's most outstanding teams ever. The boys team for the first time in Memorial's tennis history had an undefeated season!! The #1 player of the boy's team, Mike Gilbert, had a first in All-City and a first in Conference and was fourth in State. The #2 player, Scott Smith, also had a first in All-City and in Conference and was seventh in State. The #1 doubles team, Scott Stover and Kris James were first in All-City, first in Conference and seventh in State. The #2 doubles team with Russell Foster and Greg Johnsen received fourth in All-City, first in Conference and fourth in State. With a team like that of course the boy's Varsity was undefeated! On the girl's Varsity #1 Andrea Hood received first in All-City and Conference, while #2, Robbi McCoy received second in Conference. The above individuals' outstanding efforts helped the 1980 Memorial tennis team to swing to victory!

Under the direction of Coach Dugger, the 79-80 golf team had a winning season. The team participated in many tournaments throughout the year. They placed 4th in the City Metro golf tournament and 3rd in the Miami Metro tournament. The team won 16 and tied 1 out of 22 matches. Everywhere the team went they consecutively placed high. The team had many outstanding players and was led by the efforts of John Barnhart, Tim Kinderman, and John Phillips. With the great ability to win, the Memorial Charger golf team displayed a golden guality in all their matches.

Memorial Cheerleaders are one tradition all Chargers can be proud of! Cheerleading is a full time activity and our school is lucky to have talented girls who are willing to devote so much of their time to it. Our Varsity squad not only cheered at all Varsity sports, they also entered their own competitions. Our Varsity cheerleaders won the District Championship at the University of Arkansas summer cheerleading camp, and were also awarded a trophy at OU's annual cheerleader competition for being one of the five top squads. The great Varsity cheerleaders held their annual kiddie clinic for elementary school girls and earned over $1000 last summer by teaching junior high cheerleading clinics. The Junior Varsity cheerleaders, who supported all the junior varsity sports, won a Dynamite stick and a first place trophy at the KU summer cheerleading camp, and also received a UCA spirit stick. The sophomore cheerleading squad was selected as one of the finalists for the District Championship at the University of Arkansas summer camp. These five sophomores supported sophomore football, J.V. basketball, sophomore girls' basketball and the Varsity swimmers. Many of our Charger victories in sports were due to the great enthusiasm our spirited cheerleaders were able to inspire from the Charger fans.

Throughout the year Student Council kept Memorial's student body busy by planning activities in which everyone could participate. The year began with the annual Howdy Day, familiarizing the sophomores with their new school. Other activities included ceremonial procedures for Homecoming, Mr. Irresistible Day, Spirit Week with its Zany Olympics, dress-up days, the can-food drive and the special "I can not Iran" Week.

During the school year forty girls could be seen serving others almost daily. Gamma Sigma girls ushered at school plays and sports events. They kept students in the holiday spirit by selling Spook-O-Grams, carnations, and singing valentines. Perhaps one of their most rewarding activities was working with handicapped children at the Westside Y.

1. Liz Marshall takes a moment out to pose for the camera.
2. The concern for others is demonstrated by Ellen Horkey as she contributes time to the Westside Y program.
3. One of Gamma Sigma's weekly duties is to change the Marquis in the main hall.
4. Gail Goldman enjoys serving Memorial High School.

This year the American Field Service brought to Memorial a little bit of Norway, Australia, and West Germany. These countries came by means of student representatives, Joost Smits, Jane Comerford, and Ulrike Harder. Three individuals who were bold and brave enough to leave their homeland for a year to experience life at Memorial High School. These foreign exchange students have helped to broaden our views on the world outside of our hometown. Throughout the year AFS raised money to help sponsor next year's students by concession stands, the donkey basketball game, and the soccer game. They also enjoyed a Halloween Costume Party, and a float trip.

1. Donkey, man's best friend!
2. Jeff Adams gives the camera his best side.
3. Points are earned after hard work at the AFS soccer game.

Pep Club kept the Charger pride burning within the Memorial Fans. The school, as a whole, supported Pep Club with their attendance at the sports events. This year Pep Club and their get-Rowdy tactics really boosted the Charger moral. The bursting spirit brought to the games by the fans produced a great air of enthusiasm. The Charger Fans brought fame to the school when a newspaper article was written about their tremendous support. Throughout the year Pep Club sponsored door decorations, a hat day, warm-up-the-Chargers day, and spirit-raising pep assemblies. They supplied spirit ribbons to athletes and adorned the halls with banners.

Memorial's student body was made up of 2,038 individuals — 2,038 people with different interests, activities, and pastimes. But we were one. The common bond that made us the same was Memorial. We all took tests, attended pep rallies, and parked in that joke of a parking lot. We may have had different interests, but school was our life — from 8 to 3.

1. Pam Perdue and Pat Calhoun smooch under Pat's portable mistletoe.
2. Innocent Melanie Pool finally understands a joke.
3. Pam Metcalf, Robin Rattray, Jeannie Henry, and Julie Heagler bring some sunshine to Mrs. Holley's first hour.
4. Kaye Ritter takes time out for a phone call.
5. Bobby Mareburger contemplates computer math and the meaning of life.
6. Ride 'em Caryl "Cowboy" Carr.
7. A familiar sight to every charger: Nelson Moore and Julie Kent.

Despite our mothers' best efforts, most of us existed on junk food. Breakfast was a Koolee and a donut or bagel. By first hour, we had progressed from donuts to Sugar Babies, M&M's, Junior Mints, and lollipops. Lunch was nutritious — hamburgers, tacos, or pizza. After school brought pickles and popcorn. Friday nights meant Shotgun's, Godfather's, or Mazzio's. Our mothers swore we'd make ourselves sick, but we survived — somehow.

1. Carla Wilson laughs as Tom Adams eats his 99th banana.
2. Seniors Doug Hammell and Steve Mayfield enjoy the hot-n-juicy hamburgers at Wendy's.

2.

3.

4.

"Li'l Abner" involved hundreds of dedicated, hard-working, fun-loving, and talented seniors, juniors, and sophomores. Beginning with try-outs in December, each member of the cast, orchestra, and stage crew spent more than 200 hours putting together the show. Their practice paid off with one of the biggest crowd-pleasers ever at Memorial. Under the direction of stage manager John McAllister, the cast played to a full house all three nights. In the tradition of all Memorial musicals, "Li'l Abner" was professional quality. We will remember it for its colorful scenery and lively music, but most of all, we will remember "Li'l Abner" because it was fun.

Spirit Week '80

In February, STUCO sponsored Spirit Week. From arm wrestling to beard growing, it seemed like 1,000 activities were going on simultaneously. Mason brought activities that were new to Memorial: a marathon basketball game, Famour People Day, and the Mr. Irresistible Contest.

1. Senior Lynn Banks participates in hat day.
2. Kent Hatheway and Mikey Merrill demonstrate their table manners.
3. Penny Pearson shows riding skill on her shiny new tricycle.
4. Jane "Hane" Schribner shows her school spirit by entering the Great Trike Race.

2. Penny Pearson imitates punk rocker "Blondie."
3. The "Chezzers" doing what they do best — breaking hearts.
4. Rigel drummer Marc Hudson demonstrates his superlative talent.
5. Rigel performs "Cocaine."
6. Seniors are awed by the talent on stage.
7. Monte Carden entertains his fellow seniors.

1980 Seniors Say . . . "Okay Bye, Memorial!"

2.

May 21, 1980 was a day of mixed feelings for most of the seniors. It was our last day of high school, and although we were happy to graduate, we knew it would be hard to leave the memories of our shared experiences. The Class of Eighty had come a long way together — now it was time for us to make our ways separately in the world. But from time to time, we would think of our days at Memorial, and we would cherish the memories of them forever.

5.

7.

8.

9.

1. Frank Tutt signs Jimmy Sellers' back.
2. Phillip Jones and Tom Adams are so entertaining.
3. Mark Dunham, Billy Batten, Lynn Banks, and Penny Pearson model their caps and gowns.
4. Seniors sign TAPS supplements in order to remember each other.
5. Seniors order prom party pics.
6. GATOR!
7. Bradley Bellinger hesitates before putting on his gown.
8. John Lee, David Danzi, Lisa Oliver, and Robert Franklin pose for a picture on the last day of school.
